

TRIO CASSIA

From late Baroque to Romanticism on period instruments: the Cassia Trio is dedicated to the rediscovery and historicist interpretation of virtuoso works between Johann Sebastian Bach and Ludwig van Beethoven.

The ensemble was founded in 2020 and regularly received lessons from Zvi Meniker at the Hannover Conservatory. Since its founding, it has given concerts at various festivals and series in Germany (“KonzertGut” in Braunschweig, “Spiritueeller Herbst” in Wöltingerode, “Musik im Garten” in Hannover) and has surprised with new and creative interpretations of the classical repertoire at the Regional Museum and the “Herrenhäuser Garten” palace in Hannover, the “Clavier Salon” in Göttingen, the French Institute and the Villa Ichon in Bremen, etc.

Its members are very active in international concerts, taking part in orchestras such as the European Union Baroque Orchestra (EUBO), the Niedersachsen Symphony Orchestra (NDR), the German Youth Philharmonic Orchestra, the “Festa Musicale”, etc.
